Note by the Secretary-General

1. By a communication dated 2 March 1993, addressed on behalf of the Secretary-General to States parties to the Statute of the International Court of Justice, attention was drawn to the fact that the terms of office of the following five members of the International Court of Justice will expire on 5 February 1994:

Mr. Shigeru Oda (Japan)

2. In conformity with Articles 4 and 13 of the Statute of the Court, the General Assembly and the Security Council, during the forty-eighth session of the General Assembly, will elect five judges for a period of nine years, beginning on 6 February 1994. In accordance with paragraph 1 of Article 5 of the Statute of the Court, national groups were thus invited to undertake the nomination of persons in a position to accept the duties of a member of the Court and to submit such nomination to the Secretary-General no later than 31 August 1993.

3. In accordance with Article 7 of the Statute of the Court, the Secretary-General has the honour to submit to the General Assembly and to the Security Council a list in alphabetical order of all the persons thus nominated (see annex).

4. On 27 October and 3 November 1993, the Secretary-General further submitted to the General Assembly and to the Security Council information on additional nominations made by national groups received by him after the deadline of 31 August 1993 and on the withdrawal of candidatures (A/48/555-S/26640 and Add.1).

5. The composition of the Court and the voting procedure to be followed in the General Assembly and in the Security Council is set out in a memorandum by the Secretary-General, issued as document A/48/432-S/26489. The curricula vitae of the candidates appear in document A/48/440-S/26497 and Corr.1.

6. At the 49th plenary meeting, held on 4 November 1993, the President of the General Assembly drew the attention of the Assembly to the documents relating to the election mentioned above. He announced that additional notifications of nominations from national groups had been received by the Secretary-General, as well as notifications of the withdrawal of candidatures. Upon the proposal of the President, the General Assembly decided to request the Secretariat to issue a consolidated and updated list (see annex) of candidates reflecting all the information received, thus facilitating the election for all representatives. Pursuant to that decision, the present document has been prepared.
